

Anthony Chiarello

President & CEO, TOTE

Anthony Chiarello, a fourth generation industry veteran with more than 38 years experience in transportation and logistics, is the President and CEO of TOTE.

Chiarello, who joined TOTE (formerly American Shipping Group) in August of 2010, was previously COO and executive vice president of NYK Logistics (Americas), Inc.

Prior to NYK, Chiarello was with the AP Moller/ Maersk organization for more than 16 years. He held various executive positions at Maersk including President of Maersk Logistics USA Inc.; President of Hudd Distribution; Chairman of Maersk Customs Services; President of Maersk Equipment Service Company, Inc., and Assistant Vice President of Universal Maritime Service Corporation, a previous stevedoring and terminal subsidiary of Maersk. Chiarello also served as a board member of Bridge Terminal Transportation, a Maersk drayage company. Prior to joining AP Moller/Maersk, Chiarello held the position of Deputy Executive Director of the Maryland Port Administration in Baltimore, Maryland.

Chiarello previously served on the Board of Visitors for the D'Amore-McKim School of Business at Northeastern University. He currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Villanova School of Business, Center for Global Leadership. Other industry involvement includes serving as a board member of the Transportation Institute; board member of CRT (Coalition for Responsible Transportation); past facilitator for the annual AAPA/MARAD/NAWE Terminal Management Training Program; member of the Advisory Board of The United States Maritime Resource Center; and past board member for the Global Maritime and Transportation School (GMATS) at the US Merchant Marine Academy.

He holds a bachelor's degree from Villanova University and is an alumnus of the Harvard Business School and the INSEAD Business Institute of Fontainebleau, France.